Work Experience

Management Intern, İSKİ, İstanbul, Turkey, Jun 2017- Aug 2017

• I was Observer for drinking water treatment processes of 50+ employees within the Treatment Department. Kağıthane Drinking Water Treatment Plant is the most valuable drinking water treatment plant of european side of İstanbul. I communicated with workmen and got benefit from their experiences about treating water and how the mechanics works.

Management and Planning Intern, PARSAN, Istanbul, Turkey, Feb 2018 - Mar 2018

• As a graduated environmental engineer, I needed to see a factory that works nonstop. Parsan is a huge factory which produce some of cars' and buses' important steel parts. I Observed workers and their equipments and where or when, they are using them. Also, there were simultaneously working solid waste and waste water treatment units. I Experienced an occupational health and safety specialist's tasks and an environmental engineer's tasks in a factory.
